A CALL TO EVANGELISM

PRESENTING CHRIST BY ALL MEANS

I have been involved in evangelism with OAC (Open air campaigners) since 2011, and since July 2016, I am now officially a 'trainee evangelist'. This is really exciting news because it means that I will be working towards full time evangelism by taking part in specific training. In an age where we see God being shoved out of the work place, the class room, out of institutions - out of our society, I believe The Lord wants me to spend more time evangelising and presenting the gospel through the Sketch board (and other means) around the streets of the UK and beyond.

WHY PREACH IN THE OPEN AIR?

THE SKETCHBOARD

As Christians we possess the most important message in the history of mankind. God is reconciling Himself to the world through Christ Jesus who commissions us to share the gospel. Men and women will be eternally lost without Christ, and life in the here and now is unfulfilled without Him. I believe we need to use every means possible to share the love of Christ. Privately witnessing in everyday day life is important, as is preaching in a Church setting. In order to touch the masses and the 95% of people who do not attend Church, we need to be out there with the people. In a few hours on the street, with a sketch board, a small team can have many in depth conversations and (prayerful) encounters with people, many who have never heard a clear gospel presentation.

PROCLAIMING THE GOSPEL

GOSPEL CONVERSATIONS

The photograph above to the left shows me preaching the Sketch-board in the street. Look how the crowd leans in to listen.

Having finished proclaiming the gospel to the people, the photograph above to the right shows there are now five different gospel conversations taking place. Five (or more correctly six because conversation number two is with a couple of people) lost people who, having listened to the truth of Jesus preached to them, and are now talking about what they heard with a Christian (team member). This could be the first time in their lives this has happened, or it may be the next in a divinely appointed series of gospel encounters.

“How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!” (Romans 10: 14-15).

TRUE OR FALSE SKETCHBOARD

To the left is our 'True or False' board where we invite people to choose which statements are true or false! It's very approachable and it's exciting to see many people responding to the gospel such as these teenagers on their way home from school, as you can see from the picture on the right. Recently, one teenage school boy was so captivated by a sketch-board presentation I did – he revealed how that morning he had been seriously questioning where he stood with God. He disclosed with astonishment how through the sketch-board 'God was literally answering the major questions he had asked Him that morning' – it was a truly powerful God encounter for both of us!

WHY?

Jesus said, the 'Harvest is plentiful and that the workers are few'. I believe it is important to encourage others – The Church – to continue proclaiming and sharing the gospel to the world. OAC already encourage others with the gift of evangelism to be trained and equipped to partake in and fulfil this important ministry. Please take a look at www.oacgb.org.uk if you would like to know more about the work of OAC.

Would you consider becoming a partner with me by praying for the work of OAC and supporting me?

The purpose for me in sharing this is because I cannot do this alone and I am asking you to be involved in this ministry together with me. Firstly, would you be willing to encourage and pray for me and those I reach out to as I continue this work?

Secondly, OAC evangelists are self-employed and do not receive any long term support from OAC. Evangelists like myself depend on God's provision through donations from other believers who are willing to partner with us in this work. Would you consider supporting me financially?

Together with my Church leaders, I believe I am answering God's call to go into full time ministry. At present, I am regularly evangelising in Leicester Square, Oxford Circus, Woodgreen and Whetstone. My heart's desire is to cover many more locations as I enter into full time evangelism. Any financial support that you are able to give, whether by a regular monthly or one off donation would:

- 1. Help support me to make the transition into daily full time ministry in the UK and occasionally overseas.
- 2. Enable me to use high quality resources for schools and churches.
- 3. Allow me to develop as an evangelist and help equip the Church by training the next generation of evangelists.
- 4. Cover ministry costs for other resources that are required; for instance, Bibles, gospels, tracts and other literature that are given to people without charge.

If you are able to support me, either in prayer by receiving a regular (quarterly) prayer letter or financially, please send me a response to: mariosk12@yahoo.co.uk
